Market Review

FBM KLCI and FBM Shariah fell -3.7% MoM and -2.2% MoM respectively in January 2021. The markets ended the positive streak amidst a rise in the number of new COVID-19 cases, a state of emergency rule, and the beginning of a new round of nationwide lockdown (MCO 2.0) to curb the pandemic. All sectors posted negative returns with the exception of technology and healthcare. The underperformers were led by the property, energy and construction sectors. BNM maintained the OPR at 1.75% in the January 2021 MPC meeting. Although the Committee reckons outlook is still subject to downside risks, mainly from widespread virus transmissions and delays in vaccine administrations, they also expect the on-going policy supports to help underpin global growth prospects going forward. Ringgit weakened by 0.5% to RM4.04 against USD at the end of January 2021. CPO moderated -3.1% to RM3,490 per tonne while crude oil gained +7.9% to end at USD55.9 per barrel.
