Market Review

The KLCI fell 3.7% month on month in March and 2.8% in 1Q 2019 to close at 1643 points. The decline in the market was driven by concerns over potential earnings risks for banks due to a possible OPR cut as well as below expectation for 4Q 2018 corporate earnings. Sentiment was further dampened on slower growth prospect of global economy due to the US-China trade uncertainties. The average daily value traded on Bursa Malaysia in March rose 25% mom and 15% yoy to RM2.84bn due to higher trading activities by local retail investors.
