Any material change to the investment objective of the Fund would require the Unit Holders' approval.

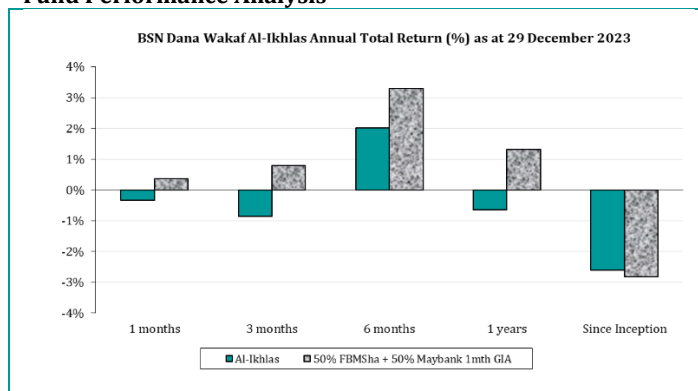

Market Review

The FBM EMAS Shariah Index posted 0.5% return in 2023 in line with the global market movement. The local bourse had undergone two major setbacks during year when it plummeted in March following the banking crisis in the US and Europe but managed to recover, before plunging to its trough in June following the political uncertainties in the State Election. Amongst the sectors that saw strong performance during the year were Utilities (+51.4%), Properties (+34.2%) and Construction (+25.8%). The 3Q2023 result season showed more positive surprises and improvement as misses-to-beats ratio narrowed to 1.3x from 2.2x in 2Q2023. The mid-cap equities have performed the best as FBM70 recorded 12.3% rise as it has limited impact of banking turmoil in US and Europe towards global banking stock sentiments.
